

Your Address

You must bring in one proof of your address. The document must be current and show your name and actual address (not a P.O. Box). Any one of these will work

- Utility bill - electric or phone bill
- Bank statement
- Client's school record, recent
- Driver's license
- Foster child placement letter/notice
- Housing, rent/mortgage agreement
- Letter from person applicant lives with and proof (such as utility bill, etc. with the name/address of the individual with whom the applicant or client is living)
- Military orders, U.S.
- Official map/residence location
- Paycheck/stub with name and address
- Photo ID card, official
- Shelter letter signed/dated by staff
- Property tax receipt, W-2 form for the previous year (can only be used in January or February of current year)
- Unemployment documents in applicant's or client's name
- Voter registration card

Note: Women and children can qualify for WIC regardless of their citizenship or immigration status.

Identification

You must bring in one proof of identification for you and for any infant or child who is applying for WIC. The document must be current. Any one of these can be proof of identity.

- Baptismal certificate
- Birth certificate
- Client's school ID or record, recent
- Court orders (divorce, child support, alimony, adoption)
- Driver's license

- Foster child placement letter/notice
- ID card for health, social services or work
- Infant hospital records (for example crib card, discharge papers), acceptable for infants only.
- Immigration record
- Immunization record
- Marriage license
- Medical records
- Military ID, U.S.
- Passport, U.S.
- Paycheck/stub with name
- Photo ID card, official
- Supplemental Security Income letter in applicant's or client's name
- Unemployment documents in applicant's or client's name
- Voter registration card